5 Obligations of the Expert

If the Expert is required to provide expert evidence, he becomes subject to the provisions of the Civil or Criminal Procedure Rules that relate to experts. ## 7 Fees and Disbursements

In the absence of any written agreement to the contrary:

- (a) the Appointor who instructs the Expert does so as principal and shall be personally responsible for payment of the Expert's fees and disbursements, whether or not the Appointor has been placed in funds by the Client or by the Legal Services Commission and the Appointor shall pay them in full, notwithstanding any provisions of the Civil or Criminal procedure Rules with regard to their amount, recoverability or otherwise, and whether or not the full amount has been allowed in any assessment of the costs of the case.
- (b) Fees will be charged on a time costed basis at the Expert's hourly rate from time to time applicable and notified in writing by the Expert to the Appointor unless a fixed fee or some other basis of charging has been agreed in advance and in writing between the Expert and the Appointor.
- (c) The Expert may present interim invoices at such intervals as he considers fit and payment of each invoice will be due within two months of its presentation, subject to any written waiver granted by the Expert in legally aided cases.

- (e) If the Appointor does not make payment when due the Expert may, in addition, modify the payment terms so as to make all fees and disbursements payable in advance or require the Appointor to give such assurance, guarantee or undertaking as the Expert may reasonably require to secure the Appointor's payment obligations.
- (f) Until payment in full has been made by the Appointor the Expert shall be entitled to retain all books, papers, reports, documents and other materials, whether or not these are the property of the Appointor and whether or not they relate to the assignment in respect of which the Expert has been instructed.

8 Cancellation Fees

The expert shall be entitled to charge fees whenever:

- (a) the Expert's time has been reserved for a specific hearing, meeting or other engagement, or
- (b) specific instructions have been given to the Expert for an investigation and report and due settlement of the matter, or for any other reason not the fault of the Expert, the reservation of time has been cancelled or the instructions withdrawn.

These fees will be calculated according to the following sliding scale based on the number of days to the hearing or to the date arranged for the completion of the report or of the investigation

9 Disputed Fees

In the event of a dispute over the amount of the Expert's fees or disbursements, such sums that are not disputed shall be payable when due irrespective of any counterclaim that may be alleged. That part which is in dispute can then be referred for resolution to a mediator acceptable to both parties or, if agreement cannot be reached, by using the services of the Centre for Dispute Resolution. In the event that the dispute is not resolved by means of negotiation or mediation, the Courts of England, Wales and Scotland have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to the dispute and its resolution.
